National Trail Raceway is bringing something completely different to Central Ohio in 2021. On Saturday Night, May 8. it will be the first ever Demolition Drag Race held at National Trail Raceway, the Hillbilly Nationals.

The idea comes from Cleetus McFarland's Cleetus and Cars and we hope to grow demolition drag racing.

That night fans will be see something never been done before at National Trail Raceway. The rules are simple, the two vehicles must hit at least once after the 60ft mark and before the 1/8th mile to be a valid race. But that doesn't mean they can't hit more than once! Fans will get see who is left standing at the end of the night after all the carnage.
